JOSEPH SANCHEZ, ESQ. (JS-6487)

1. I am the attorney for the Movants herein, and am thus fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein.
2. This Affirmation sets forth supplemental facts regarding the relief sought herein.
3. The Alleged Debtor has shown documents to the petitioners – but refused to provide them to counsel herein on claim of confidentiality - that indicate the Alleged Debtor is functionally out of business, it has no plans to become operational, its liabilities exceed its assets, and it has a mere EU2,400 remaining in its bank accounts.
4. The sole “business” of the Alleged Debtor as borne out in all of the materials provided to date has been in the winding down of its affairs.
5. The only material transactions within the last year by the Alleged Debtor involve substantial cash payments out of the company to management and companies affiliated with Neveq, its sole shareholder.
6. Management of Lessno has left the business in ruins and the information revealed to date has caused my clients great concern as the sole remaining creditors of the company.

7. Per this Court's Order, the parties engaged in a full day of mediation on May 17, 2010 before Justice Herman Cahn (ret) at his offices at Milberg, LLP.
8. Justice Cahn has sought the continued mediation with the parties, and the petitioners are willing to continue to work toward this end, provided they receive the documents set forth in the separate motion to compel.
9. There is little money with which to pay the claims of the creditors, and the financial records have revealed that this little remaining value is being dissipated at a tremendous rate.
10. Based on the foregoing, the Movants renew their request for the interim – indeed emergency – appointment of an interim trustee.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Joseph Sanchez', is written over a horizontal line.
